with our exclusive partnership of brokers.

Join the partnership that makes you stand out.

| Expand your reach.

Aspen iLink™ is an exclusive partnership of energized, experienced real estate brokers who are looking for an edge to help grow their businesses. Our suite of tools and connections provides consistency, while taking away the need to wait on others to make the first move. We give you the means to proactively approach new clients — and the freedom to evolve with the market.

With Aspen iLink, you can:

- Position yourself as an enterprise solution provider to property portfolio owners in your area — including servicers, investors and banks
- Offer your clients a national, enterprise level, outsourcing solution that is backed by experienced professionals and a technology partner who has managed over $50 billion of asset disposition.
- Streamline your business processes and costs

| Leverage the power of many.

By becoming an Aspen iLink member, you are entering into a prestigious partnership of real estate brokers across the U.S. Our members can position themselves as national enterprise-level solution providers with a recognized rating in the marketplace.

Aspen iLink members include those who have five or more operating units, 10 or more agents, close on average 100 or more properties per year — and who strive to get more out of their careers.

| Use partnership resources to grow your business.

By joining Aspen iLink you will position yourself to grow your business by reaching new clients and new sources of work using a suite of resources at your disposal. These resources include:

- Assistance on how to use the partnership and package to approach new clients and prospects
- Access to the partnership for referrals and peer assistance
- Sales literature that prepares you to approach prospective clients
- Enterprise level solutions suite, including Aspen iFamily™, to help you manage properties
- An Aspen iLink website providing access to news, updates, forum, documentation and more
- Process documentation and details on how to manage a property through Aspen iLink
- Portfolio reporting and management, plus tools you need to provide the service to your clients
- A partnership marketing budget based on where the channel chooses to allocate funds
- A client portal that allows your clients to submit new properties and view the status of existing properties
- Ongoing support/training and enhancements from the Aspen Grove team

| Differentiate yourself in a crowded space.

Finding leads and standing out in this competitive market is a constant challenge, but we can help you approach and win new clients, while reducing your business costs. Partner with Aspen Grove and use our resources to reduce risk and expand your business reach.

“My iLink membership has provided me with business opportunities I never would have had on my own. Joining the partnership is without a doubt the most profitable business decision I have ever made.”

— Mike M., Naples FL
